

Printed and Published by
KIRKBY, HUGHES & CO.
Office, Exchange, Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

Louisville, Ky.,
TUESDAY MORNING, Oct. 8, 1860.

Gov. Willard's Remains.

The following dispatch was received from Indianapolis by Mayor Crawford last evening:

"The remains of Gov. Willard will arrive at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Council, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred."

"John W. Boggs."

We need not say that we earnestly hope that the invitation will be generally accepted. It would be a decent testimonial to the bereavement of a sister State of the highest executive officer and most brilliant citizen. We hope that Louisville will do herself honor on this sad occasion.

Susan Denin, on Saturday night, at Pike's Opera House, was made the recipient of a handsome present. At the close of the performance, a shower of bouquets was thrown upon the stage. After these had been gathered, a single bouquet was presented, in which was a beau- tiful gold watch and chain of exquisite workmanship and of great value. The present was worthily bestowed.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.—Advice from the African squadron, to August 8, have been received by the arrival of the slave ship Erie. The Moys Portsmouth was on her way to Loando. The Slumber had gone to Acer, on the gold coast; the Mystic, Lieutenant Leroy, was at St. Paul, and the Constitution, flag ship. The Mohican was on her return from a cruise to the gold coast when she captured the Erie. Lieutenant Garland and Passed Midshipman Blake have been invalided from the fleet.

"Go see 'The Starving Men's Feast' at the Panorama to-night."

Another accident happened on the Nashville and Indianapolis Railroad. Thus day night, as far as we know, by the breaking of one of the axles of the tender. The hindmost car was thrown down an embankment and created "all to enter smash." It was full of passengers at the time, and though many of them were more or less hurt, none of them were killed, which, under the circumstances, is singular enough.

Messrs. Barnes & Hill, who manufacture and repair gold pens, have removed to No. 800 Main street, below Third. All who wish to purchase a good pen, get an old one repaired, should give them a call.

"Any person in the upper part of the city fail to receive the Democrat regularly, who will oblige us by leaving word at the office. The regular carrier is sick, and the person supplying his place will serve all faithfully that he knows to be subscribers.

The proprietor of the Bee Hive Galley, with his characteristic enterprise, is the first to introduce in our city the Masonic, a new style of pictures. They are universally pronounced, by competent judges, the best in the world. Fail not to drop in at the Bee Hive, and our word for it, you will not go away dissatisfied.

"The Midnight Sun of the Arctic Region" at the Panorama to-night.

INNS AND HOTELS.—In 1856, when the success of the party seemed doubtful, gallant Indiana charged manfully and successfully to its victory. Will the not give us another tilt at Black Republicanism, and throw the monster to the ground?

THE LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE.—This body has been in session at Bowling Green since Wednesday last, and consists of one hundred and thirty members present. The Early presidencies, and Bishop Soulé is in attendance. Dr. Linn, of the Kentucky Conference, has been transferred to this Conference. The reports show large accession to the membership of the Church, a number of new churches established, and general prosperity.

We hope the Bell men of Indiana will, to day, give practical proof of their adhesion to the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of all laws. We have faith that they will.

"We hope every citizen of Indiana will this day reflect upon the position it which he is placed. It is his duty to decide upon the cordial perpetuity of the Union.

"Go see the 'Walrus Hunt at Night' in Arctic Panorama."

The Cincinnati Gazette, in a notice of a Black Republican torch-light procession, calls it a "feast of torches." We judge that the wily hooded hand that fired these from their nest in the Yancey-Breckinridge fire-eating cause, are now confirmed in our opinion.

An item in the New York Herald says that the Black Republicans concede the election of Henry D. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania.

Gamboldi, says a Neapolitan cor- respondent, lost but eight men in the taking of the Kingdom of Naples. An Italian world that is an (and (and) job.

We are requested to say to our com- tress readers that Mr. H. B. Buffemeyer's sale of blooded stock, comprising brood mares, stallions, geldings, Durham cattle, and Southdown sheep, will take place at his farm, eight miles east of the city, on the Ohio river, on Thursday morning, Oct. 11th at 10 o'clock. Our friend C. Spencer has been engaged as the auctioneer.

DEATH OF A KENTUCKY FRIER.—Mr. Watson East, who died in Madison county, on the 7th ult., three days before comple- plementing his 80th year, was a native of Greenup, Ky. He had resided in the state of the same. All communication with his family, and friends, received good news.

Dissolution.

THE FIRM OF HENRY D. FOSTER, UN- der 10th and Main streets, New Albany, was dissolved on the 10th of October, 1860.

For Sale.

A NUNSTED IN A RETAIL LUGGAGE, consisting of a valise and a pocket bag, with a leather belt, and a leather bag.

GEAT S A U T H E R

BOOTS AND SHOES!

LOOK AT THIS!

THE CITIZENS OF JEFFERSONVILLE.—We have good authority for stating that a large number of illegal voters from Kentucky will attempt to cast their ballots in Jeffersonville to day, for the Black Republicans.

It is hardly necessary to add that this char- acteristic is in a joint effort, between the Black Republicans and Breckinridge. At New Albany the same game will be tried, but we hope will be defeated. Probably the entire range of pretenders has been stocked in the name manner, by the enemies of Democracy and of Hendricks and Douglass.

In addition to that great sale which will take place this morning at 10, Kuhn & Co's commission house, will also be sold, a large consignment (receive since our last sale) of 200 dozen ladies' opera hats. Also, cloaks, French merino, and camel's hair.

Friends will expect great bargains, as order us to close the day's engagements. For particulars see advertisement. Auctioneers Garrison will surely do his duty to satisfy his friends and customers.

Mr. Wastell's damping sale for gen- tlemen will commence on Wednesday next, at 10 o'clock a.m., in the parlor of the Masonic Temple, Temple square $10, payable in advance.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—Speedy G. Gandy, of Fayette, Assistant Elector for the State at Large. Dick Badger, of Hickman, Assistant Elector for the First District.

There was a great rush at Barker & Co's New York store yesterday to see their new stock of goods, which they have just opened.

BREVITIES.—Officer Just arrested a man named John Stinchey, yesterday, who had in his possession some jewelry and other articles stolen from O'F. Denison, Market street.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany will attend at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Councils, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

The citizens of New Albany, on Saturday evening, met together, and passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Gov. Willard, and sorrow at his death.

—A few nights ago a guitar was stolen from the residence of Mr. Shadler, and last night officers Tiller and Rust found a man named Clark, near the corner of Floyd and Lafayette streets, with the identical instrument in his possession. The consequences were that Clark went to jail.

—A case of piano was damaged.

MR. WHIPPLE'S CONCERT.—There is considerable interest felt in musical circles with regard to the concert of to-morrow, at Masonic Temple, and all are anticipating a great treat from the famous organist of the day. Mr. Whipple's musical entertainments have always been exceedingly popular with the musical public, and as this will undoubtedly be one of his best, we shall expect to see the hall crowded to overflowing.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany will attend at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Councils, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany will attend at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Councils, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany will attend at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Councils, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany will attend at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Councils, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to-morrow.

The citizens of New Albany will attend at Jeffersonville on Saturday evening, the 10th inst. The Mayor and Councils, the military and the societies of Masons and Odd Fellows and the citizens of Louisville are all invited to join the procession and proceed to New Albany, where the body will be interred.

—A man was apprehended yesterday morning by Officer Grout on the charge of stealing a coat and some other clothing, together with ten dollars in money from a farm house ten miles from the city. He will have an examination to

